

POSITION TITLE: Licensed Practical Nurse | Orthopedics

Scope

The LPN at Longevità Medical is responsible for performing clinical duties and assisting or setting up minor procedures for the clinical practice.

Position Summary

LPN is responsible for assisting in the care of Orthopedics | Sports Medicine. This is a fulltime position that requires approximately 90% of time standing/walking and about 10% of time sitting. Some heavy lifting is involved.

Qualifications

- LPN Licensure from accredited school of nursing
- CPR certified
- Orthopedics experience is preferred but not required.
- More than 2 years' experience as a LPN in the field of medicine.
- Ultrasound experience.
- Experience and use of electronic medical records
- Understands proper way to educate clients, assess learning response.
- Ability to assess client and identify medical needs/concerns and the ability to communicate this to supervisory MD or NP provider.
- Ability to triage patients.
- Training in basic clinical/medical procedures.
- Basic computer operating knowledge-Microsoft word and Excel
- Basic knowledge of working with camera/downloading info into computer. (Will receive training)
- Ability to work with and maintain confidential patient information.
- Ability to communicate effectively with all levels of staff, patients, and clients.
- Ability to follow precise direction, instructions, and system protocols.
- Ability to provide friendly, timely service to all patients and/or clients with questions or concerns.
- Ability to take direction and follow through on assignments and responsibilities.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Assist Orthopedic doctor in performing their duties.
- Blood draws
- Set-up and assist with minor procedures and send specimens out to labs.
- Take new patient photos and enter demographics into database
- Ability to use EMR for making appointments, checking on appointments, adding notes and in general good understanding of all EMR functioning.
- Return patient phone calls with answers to inquiries for any reason
- Full understanding of all injectables and ability to teach clients about these products.
- Clean and sterilize instruments during clinical day along with other team members. Clean rooms at end of clinical day as needed with other team members. Launder robes and garments as needed for Clinic

All duties and responsibilities stated are essential job functions. Staff members may be required to perform additional job-related duties as assigned by management.